Membership dues are essential in our effort to fulfil our mission To Preserve, Promote and Protect the History and Traditions of Odenton. They provide a vital part in our ability to offer the following to our members:

- Heritage Times– A quarterly News Journal of the Odenton Heritage Society, Inc.
- Free use of the OHS Research Center (by appointment).
- Invitations to our Annual Meeting/Dinner, quarterly Board and Membership meetings, special members only events, education programs, exhibit openings, lectures, workshops as well as participation in surveys and opportunities to volunteer.
- The knowledge that their dues help with the maintenance and renovation of our historic buildings.
- The chance to meet and connect with other individuals interested in the history of Odenton.

-Bronze Sponsor, in addition to all the above, will have their name or business listed in the Heritage Times and on our website as a Bronze Sponsor.

-*Silver Sponsor, in addition to all the above, will have their name or business listed in the Heritage Times and on our website as a Silver Sponsor as well as 2 tickets to an event that year.

-Gold Sponsor, in addition to all the above, will have their name or business listed in the Heritage Times and on our website as a Gold Sponsor as well as 4 tickets to an event that year.

The Odenton Heritage Society, Inc. is a 501©3 Non-Profit Organization. Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code requirements for substantiation of charitable contributions, no goods or services were provided in return for the Tax Deductible contribution.
